Dear Clarence;

My name is Dr. Green in Heber City, and I wish you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Enclosed you will see a picture of old Robert Krebs' band. Please tell me what building they are standing in front of in Midway.

Enclosed is a self-addressed and stamped envelope.
Please return your answer in this envelope.

Sincerely Yours,

R. Raymond Green M.D.

Dear Dr. Green - He's been in Murray, so didn't get your letter until last Friday. I guess you didn't know that Clarence has lost his eyesight (legally blind). I described the building, but he doesn't recall. Since Robert Krebs had a hand in Charleston in 1893, the year Clarence was born, I'm wondering if the picture could have been taken there instead of Midway.

If it is the Midway Bop Band it is possible the building was the old Van Wagner store that was west of ^{the} present Town Hall.

Clarence knew members of the band pictured on page 625 in How Beautiful Upon the Mountains, but he, himself was not a member.

I'm sorry we can't help you.
Letha Tatge has good eyesight.
Maybe she would recognize the building.

Sincerely,

Verna Probst

P.S. Some of the people look the same as those on p 625 referred to above, so it was probably the Midway Band.
